PROFILE INFO

Nowadays, everyone relies on data to analyze and get a general overview of the big picture. If you are fond of personality tests, then the Myers Briggs evaluation says that I'm a "Protagonist" (ENFJ-A), who (based on the Gallup's Strength Finder) is (1) Futuristic, (2) Strategic, (3) Individualization, (4) Achiever, as well as (5) Activator.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- RREACH | GLOBAL PROJECT MANAGER
 February 2016- current
 This role has helped me grow in my people skills as well as project management skills. With the help of a great team, we've managed to set up a 4-year global follow up plan with pastoral leaders and pastoral trainers to help them connect with each other, find curricular resources and track their workshop, training, and education.
- ETERNAL-I | SENIOR PROJECT MANAGER
 September 2007 - current
 In my role at eternal-i, I've managed to directly connect with clients to help them envision their projects. Once envisioned, we would work together to achieve the appropriate outcomes within a timeframe and budget.
 Yes, we've had the usual out of scope elements, but with good communication, transparency as well as clarity we managed to overcome them and move forward.
- ABTS | EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
 Septmeber 2013 - February 2016
 In this role at the Arab Baptist Theological Seminary, I managed to facilitate the President's routines by connecting with the leadership team on day to day basis.
